Birmingham Woman Killed When Car Accidently Rolls Over Her

Birmingham, Alabama 1/17/2010 - Deputies were dispatched to the 2600 block of 1st Place NW just after 10 pm last night to investigate a report of a person down.

A witness reported the victim, 20 year old Jasmine Foster of Birmingham got into the driver's side of her car to leave. Her 20 year old friend seated in the passenger's seat reported the 1993 Toyota Camry would not go into reverse and Ms. Foster got out. When the victim got out of the car it started rolling forward. The victim went to the front of the car and attempted to push against it to stop it from rolling. She was unable to hold the car back and it rolled over her pinning her underneath. Center Point Fire responded to the scene and freed the victim from under the vehicle but were unable to revive her.
